ALMA

Alma is in the full throes of the scholastic year. Everything has started, including the second year theologians' sermons in the refectory. Fr. Jas. Malone is teaching Oriental Theology to the third and fourth years. The new non-class days for certain Jesuit feast-days were begun on the feast of St. Francis Borgia.

Messrs. O'Toole and Robinson conducted Civilian Defense classes at Holy City. Messrs. Ryan, Buchanan, Toner, and Sneringer taught First Aid classes at Montezuma Boys' School. Mr. Gruye, Chief of the Ground Observation Post, was called to inspect the trainer planes at the San Jose airport. Alma's observation post is to be featured on the radio program "Eyes Aloft," for which Mr. Lanphier has prepared the script. Messrs. O'Toole and Robinson helped save the life of the mother of a large family, who was strangling from a throat constriction.

Dr. Nagle, an eminent psychiatrist of San Francisco, gave the community a lecture on Scruples, Their Cause and Remedy.

Among recent guests: Fr. Jas. Keane, O.S.M., who consulted the Mariology section of the library in preparation for a book on the Blessed Mother; Fr. Bede Ernsdorff, O.S.B., brother of Mr. Ernsdorff, S.J.; the Deans of the American Assistancy; Fr. Mark Gaffney, Dean of Studies of the Oregon Province, who interviewed the Oregon theologians.

Fr. Renner went to Portland for his sick mother; Mr. Carney to Missoula for his sick father. Mr. Ward underwent an appendectomy.

Oct. 13. Fr. Rector's feast day was celebrated. The fourth year fathers prepared the three meals, and waited on table during dinner.

LOYOLA UNIVERSITY

Fr. Bradstreet has been appointed Auxiliary Chaplain by Bishop O'Hara, Military Ordinary, to work in the various military centers of the area about Los Angeles.

Oct. 7. Over 200 students attended the first Sodality meeting. After the organization had been explained by Fr. Leahy and President Carl Sweeters, heads of committees were appointed; Jack Stehly (Our Lady's Committee); Donald McMahon (Eucharistic); Bill Rusworth (Apostolic). Among other activities, a campaign was begun to impress upon students the gravity of any abuse against the Holy Name in speech.

Oct. 26-28. Student body retreat given by Fr. White.

Oct. 16. The University was host to delegates representing the International Relations Club of more than twenty colleges and universities in Southern California and Arizona. Fr. Connolly extended the official greeting on behalf of the University.

The number of former Loyola University students enrolled in the armed forces is 520. Of these five have been killed, two reported missing. Of the 65 Americans in the A.V.G. "Flying Tigers," three were former students of the University; two of these have been killed in action.

Oct. 11. Lt. Anthony Quigley, graduate of the University, having already received the Navy Cross, was awarded the Navy Star.

Oct. 21. Representatives of the Army, Navy and Marine Corps visited the campus to present to the students factual information concerning their respective branches of the service.

The Los Angeles City Council, as a result of a petition sponsored by the people, approved the name "Loyola Village" as the official designation of the district surrounding the University. documentary film of the exploits of Fr.

Oct. 14. "Mission to America," a documentary film of the exploits of Junipero Serra, was shown to the students in connection with a campus drive for funds for the foreign missions.

Fr. Vaughan gave a uniduum to 13 non-Catholic women, comprising a number of civic leaders, a Superior Judge, two doctors, the local commander of the WAAC's, and the Dean of Women, U.S.C.

Fr. Connolly was officially appointed to arbitrate a strike.

LOYOLA HIGH

Admiral Benson's son is in the Loyola High R. O. T. C.

An Episcopalian who came to Loyola for Latin and Greek, in order to become a Minister, is studying to become a Catholic, and may become a priest.

Fr. Ransford is taking Aeronautics at City College. Mr. Playoust goes once a week to the U.C.L.A. for advanced Greek. The professor gives him personal tutoring.

Oct. 29. Pageant of the Rosary staged in the stadium. During the month the entire student body said the rosary at the Shrine.

Oct. 23. The student body was consecrated to the Sacred Heart, in preparation for the Feast of Christ the King. The prayers were directed by the Prefect of the Sodality and the President of the Associated Students.

Oct. 14. Jim Gennette, the fifth this year from Loyola High, entered the Novitiate.

The Funeral Mass for Mrs. Liddle, who gave Loyola valuable property in Pasadena and who remembered Loyola in her will, was said by Fr. Gleeson.

To help his Spanish classes, Fr. Want goes weekly to the Mexican church to preach in Spanish and hear confessions.

LOS GATOS

The Long Retreat which begins Nov. 6, is recommended to the prayers of Ours in the Province.

Fr. Hubbard gave the community a very interesting lecture with technicolor movies of a glacier in action.

Fr. Edward McNamara, Bishop Crimont's Socius, gave General Recreations to both the Juniors and the Novices.

Oct. 2-20. Provincial Visitation.

Oct. 6. Members of the Jesuit Educational Association, in session at Santa Clara, visited the Novitiate.

Oct. 10. In honor of our Holy Father the Pope, Fr. Provincial celebrated a Solemn High Mass.

Oct. 14. James J. Gennette, (Loyola High), entered as a scholastic novice.

Oct. 15. Br. Alexis Byrne pronounced the first vows of a scholastic.

Oct. 20. Michael A. O'Hanlon, (U.S.F.), began his novitiate.

The road from the winery to Mt. St. Joseph has been provided with concrete drains and culverts, and also widened and smoothed.

Due to the army chaplaincy of Fr. Copeland, Fr. Collins is teaching history in the Juniorate.

It is hoped that Father Morton will be able to sing a Solemn High Mass on his Golden Jubilee Day.

Br. Walsh had a narrow escape from a badly crushed hand. He was riding the winery elevator and held his hand on the stop cable. His hand was carried into the pulley, when the cable pushed up at the stop. To release him the mechanism had to be taken apart. A badly bruised finger, deeply indented with the pulley flanges, was fortunately the only injury.

Br. Moreno is resting in the Santa Clara Infirmary.

Br. Muscat has cooked and preserved a goodly supply of tomatoes for the dining room.

SAN FRANCISCO

Fr. Cornelius Lynch, of El Retiro, gave the retreat to the lower divisions of the High School; Fr. Sugrue to the senior classes. Bishop Crimont of Alaska, said the closing Mass, at which the students received their monthly First Friday Communion.

Fr. Feely gave the retreat to the college department.

Fr. Erwin Toner has taken over the chaplaincy of the County Jail.

A second member of the high school lay faculty has entered the armed forces; Mr. Walker is in the navy; Mr. Doyle, in the army. Already 12 of the college staff have joined the colors.

During the emergency due to lack of help in the kitchen and refectory, the scholastics and brothers are giving generous assistance.

In the half time period of the U.S.F.-Loyola game, a naval lieutenant, Anthony Quigley, formerly a student of St. Ignatius and then of Loyola, received the Navy Cross and a Gold Star for heroic work at the battle of the Coral Sea. Both he and Harold Mazza, a navy lieutenant from U.S.F., who had previously been the recipient of a like honor, were given gold watches by representatives of their respective universities. The Mayor of San Francisco and Admiral Greenslade, of the Twelfth Naval District, were present for the ceremonies.

The High School to aid the war program inaugurated a bond and stamp drive. In 17 days, the students have bought $1700.00 worth, an average of $2.00 per student.

The annual card party of the Loyola Guild filled the University auditorium and overflowed into the classrooms; 270 tables were in use.

Oct. 28. A combined meeting of the mothers of new novices and the fathers of other Jesuits, was held in the high school auditorium.

Fr. Lyons has inaugurated a series of monthly Communion Breakfasts under the care of the University Sodality. Communion is received at St. Ignatius; breakfast is taken at a hotel downtown. On Oct. 11th, the honored guests were the ROTC officers of the class of 1942. They were escorted in procession to the Sodality's place in the church.

SANTA BARBARA

Fr. Stack went to Missoula for the Golden Jubilee of the present church, where he was pastor during World War I.

The newly paved area behind the church provides parking space for 50 autos.

St. Joseph's Center on the lower west side of the parish is functioning. Quite a fine building has been made out of the relics of the Oliver Grocery Store. It is opposite the West Side Boys Club where many of our youngsters meet under Community Chest guidance. On several afternoons a week, a group of ladies under the direction of Fr. Acquistapace meet for sewing and kindred duties for the poor. The City Health Department conducts a weekly clinic for young children. Entertainments are to be given in the auditorium under the direction of Fr. Fox.

Thanks to Fr. Stack, Fr. Spearman has three Wednesdays a month at 9:30 a. m. for the Sacred Heart Program over KMTS. The fourth and fifth Wednesdays are used by our Fathers at Our Lady of Sorrows.

Dolores High has 120 pupils, as against 105 of last year.

SANTA CLARA

The executive committee of the Jesuit Educational Association met at the University for a three-day conference. Fathers E. Rooney, Duce, Fitzsimmons, M. Gaffney, Maline, McGucken, J. Rooney, Sheehan and A. Smith are the members of the committee. A plan was proposed not only to conserve the essential features of the Ratio, but also to provide for the ever-changing national and local needs of the time.

Each evening in October, the students, led by the student-body president, recited the rosary.

The "Academic Manual," written by Fr. Shipsey, Chairman of the English Department, has been completed and released for campus use. The book is the student's official guide for academic writing. It is dated Sept. 8, 1942, and sells for 75 cents. The principles are clearly and entertainingly written; with headings helpfully distributed at the top of each page and through the book. The book ends with thirteen "local color" pages for the students of Santa Clara University.

Fr. William Deeney spent some days in the University Infirmary for rest and medical care.

Fr. Piet was brought by Fr. Duce from Santa Barbara to the University Infirmary. After a few days medical treatment by Dr. Gerlach, he was to go to Los Gatos to spend the rest of his days in the Novitiate.

Fr. Cornelius McCoy visited the campus, while in performance of his duty of inspecting the books of the various houses.

Fr. John McGowan, O.M.I., chaplain at Moffett Field, lived at the University for some weeks.
